F038682 The Bright Family Foundation v. Marjorie H. Bright et al.

To correct the inadvertence of the superior court, the first sentence of the Order of May 17, 2001, is modified to read: "The motion of cross-defendants that was originally labeled as a special motion to strike is deemed to be solely a motion regarding entitlement to costs and attorney fees; to the extent the motion requests a determination that cross-defendants are entitled to attorney fees and costs, it is granted."

The appeal from the May 17, 2001, Order, as so modified, is dismissed. The parties are responsible for their own costs on appeal. Vartabedian, J.

We concur: Ardaiz, P.J.; Cornell, J.
